

Our Spiritual Redemption: What, Why How? (Paperback)

By William (Bill) Wilson

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The fairly well known Christian story of humanity being offered salvation from our undesirable situation, by the death of Jesus Christ on the Cross, did not just happen due to a sudden decision. God made a plan for our redemption thousands of years earlier. This plan is there for anyone who chooses to find out exactly why God allowed his only Son to die. Also we should realise that his plan for our redemption has been finished and fully functional since the day of Pentecost in the year 33 AD. Some of the details of this plan relate to ourselves. They are revealed in the answers to some basic questions, which a person would need to ask if desiring to know. What or who are we? What are our personal attributes? What, if any, is our personal relationship with God? Why is our behaviour often hurtful and unacceptable to others? We need to: Recognise what is meant by personality and character; and how our real spiritual identity should relate to God; become conscious of the necessity of belief,...
